AURA

The AURA Committee would like to thank all the parents and staff who helped, performed, and came to this year's AURA Performing Arts Fundraiser.

We couldn't have done it without so much support.

With overflowing Gratitude,

AFTER SCHOOL CLIMBING PROGRAM

Rock Dimensions, operators of the Footsloggers' Climbing Tower, is offering a Spring after-school climbing program for TRCS students, age 8+. This will be a 4 wk. program and will happen after school on Weds between 1:30 and 4:00. Cost is a discounted $100.00 for the entire session which will consist of 3 visits to the climbing wall and 1 natural outdoor experience.

This will include all climbing and safety gear.

Please contact Sabrina Goebeler, @ 336-877-5859 or sabrinago40@live.com. if you are interested in signing up. Dates will be set and announced around the school schedule of full day Wednesdays. Expect program to begin mid to late April and continue into May. Happy climbing.

THIRD GRADE NEWS

ASU students will come and do two drama lessons with the third grade on Tues. March 23 and March 30. The 3rd grade is scheduled to go to ASU for a dance class on Thurs. March 25 from 9:30 – 10:30. We will have parent drivers. The 3rd grade students will present their Hero expedition on Friday April 16 in the classroom and adjoining room. We will begin at 6pm and end by 7:30pm. The students will celebrate and share their stories they have written on Thurs. April 1 in the classroom.

Beth Jacquot has arranged for a table at the Diversity Festival at ASU on Tues. March 23 to fundraise for Haiti. Students who would like to participate are encouraged to come by to help. The money collected will be given directly to Wine to Water, a local international aid organization focused on providing clean water to people in Haiti and other nations. The director, Doc Hendley, was awarded CNN's 2009 Hero. He was interviewed by CNN and Larry King Live.
